

WASHINGTON WATER PROJECT of TROUT UNLIMITED

A Celebration of Salmon-Safe Farms

Winthrop | August 21 | 2011

The Washington Water Project partners with landowners, irrigators, and others to improve on-farm water management and restore stream flows throughout the state. Our work in the Upper Columbia Basin is enhanced by our local partners including NRCS, Methow Restoration Council, Methow Conservancy and especially our funders. Special thanks to NRCS, National Fish and Wildlife Foundation and Salmon Safe for funding our Salmon Safe work in North Central Washington.
